

H. George Frederickson Award 2024

Public Management Research Association (PMRA)

Award Purpose: The purpose of the H. George Frederickson Award for Career Contributions to Public Management Research is to honor a senior scholar for exemplary contributions to the intellectual development of the field.

Award Eligibility:

To be eligible for consideration, a public management scholar will have contributions which commonly include both written scholarship and development of professional capital including association service, journal advancement, involvement in conferences, mentoring, field advocacy, etc.

Application Process:

Nominations for this award will be accepted January 8 - February 8, 2024.

Submissions must be sent electronically at: 2024 PMRA Nomination Form, and include:

- a letter explaining why the nominee merits this recognition
- a PDF copy of their curriculum vitae

Assessment Criteria:

Each submission will be assessed based on the degree to which the nominee has made:
(1) scholarly contributions to the intellectual development of public management, and
(2) professional capital contributions to the development of the field (e.g., journal development, contributions to PMRA and other organizations, coordination of conferences, mentoring, and other means of sharing scholarship and information).

Awardee Recognition:

Award will be presented at the 2024 Public Management Research Conference
University of Washington, Seattle, Washington, June 26-29, 2024.

<https://evans.uw.edu/faculty-research/pmrc2024/>

Additional General Information:

The H. George Frederickson Award was established by the Public Management Research Association (PMRA). Past recipients of the award include Sanjay Pandey, Don Kettl, Laurence Lynn, Jr., Christopher Hood, Beryl Radin, Kenneth J. Meier, Barry Bozeman, Jim Perry, Hal Rainey, Rosemary O'Leary, John Bryson, H. Brinton Milward and Norma Ricucci.

The Award Committee may also consider other individuals who, in the judgment of its members, deserve consideration for the award.

Award Committee Chair: William G. Resh, University of Southern California
Please reach out if you need assistance to Mohsen Fatemi at pmra@ku.edu.