

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY
Assistant Professor in Public Management

The Department of Political Science at Wayne State University seeks applicants for a tenure track position at the level of Assistant Professor in Public Administration/Nonprofit Management, to begin on or about August 17, 2023.

We seek candidates whose scholarship investigates contemporary issues in public and nonprofit management. A successful candidate will teach graduate-level courses in public and nonprofit management in the Master of Public Administration (MPA) program. Specifically, applicants will be required to teach courses in public service personnel management and nonprofit management. Special consideration will be given to candidates who can also teach administrative ethics including standards for policy making. The standard teaching load is two courses per semester. Responsibilities of this position also include coordinating a primarily online Graduate Certificate in Nonprofit Management.

Wayne State University is an urban-serving, premier research university in Detroit, Michigan. The Department of Political Science offers a BA in political science, a BS in public affairs, a graduate certificate in nonprofit management, an MPA program, and MA/Ph.D. programs in political science. The Graduate Program in Public Administration is accredited by the Network of Schools of Public Policy, Affairs, and Administration, and is the oldest and highest-ranked MPA program in Michigan.

Applicants must have earned a Ph.D. in public administration, public policy, nonprofit and philanthropic studies, or a related field by the time of the appointment. A promise of excellence in scholarship and teaching is required. The starting date is August 17, 2023. Applicants should submit a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, evidence of teaching effectiveness, and three letters of reference sent to Dr. Daniel S. Geller, Chair, Department of Political Science, 2040 F/AB, Detroit, MI 48202. However, all applicants must also provide their materials through the Wayne State University jobs website:
